

Lynn Van Praagh Gratton
A Bridge Between Worlds

Utilizing her unique gift, Lynn Van Praagh-Gratton conveys messages of hope, healing, and love to those who have suffered the loss of a loved one. These messages bring closure, peace, and love to people all over the United States and Canada. Lynn comes from a long line of highly gifted mediums. Lynn grew up in Bayside, New York. After high school, Lynn was a stay at home mom, and then went on to become a Flight Service Manager at American Airlines. It wasn't until her husband's untimely death that she fully embraced her gifts. The Universe helped to encourage Lynn further by placing a woman in her path who told her that she was "A Bridge Between Worlds;" at that moment Lynn knew what she was meant to do. Upon retiring from American Airlines, Lynn began to focus on her abilities and sharing them with others. Lynn has four children and is a grandmother to seven. Lynn never imagined the worlds that have opened up to her over these past few years. Throughout her life, Lynn has experienced many difficulties along her path. Through her faith and her abilities, she has been able to forge ahead and remain strong. "I want to heal people by speaking to those who can no longer be heard by their loved ones left behind" is Lynn's mantra.
